Listen to This!

When buying clothing in lots—as all stores do—the freight on a suit of clothes from New York is less than FIFTEEN CENTS.
 Now, is there any reason why you should pay from $7.50 to $12.50 more for a suit in Honolulu than you would in Chicago or New York? Isn't that the worst BUNK you ever heard of?

Now men, listen: We don't claim to give you something for nothing—but we DO give you a high-grade suit with a MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE and at a lower price than any other store in the Hawaiian Islands—bar none.

We don't hold you up because you happen to be 2100 miles from the mainland. We sell you good, honest reliable clothing at Chicago and New York prices with
 "THE MODEL CLOTHIERS" reputation and guarantee back of every stitch that leaves our doors —AND THAT MEANS SOME-THING.

Now, good people, we couldn't afford to spend money in telling you all of this unless we had the goods to back up what we tell you.

Seeing is believing—and if you'll just take time to drop in and take a peep at what we have to offer you—you'll wonder how we do it—but the main thing is, that we do all we say—and a little more too.

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT RATES WILL BE PROBED IF COMPLAINTS ARE MADE

In view of the many outside complaints which have been made regarding the present freight and passenger rates between Honolulu and Schofield Barracks, the Public Utilities Commission, at a meeting this afternoon, decided that, in case any informal complaints are made to that organization, it will immediately take them under consideration and make an investiga-freight and passenger rates was discussed at some length by the members of the commission.

EVANS BROTHERS REFUSE TO HULA ON 'BIG TIME'

Francis Evans, one of the three brothers who went to San Francisco to be given a try-out on the Orpheum circuit, returned this morning in the Matsonia, disappointed in not having been given a contract but satisfied because he had turned down the suggestion of the theatrical magnates that a hula dancer be included in their act.

The young man turned the suggestion down flatly and told the officials before whom they had their try-out that they were a musical combination, organized to play instrumental music and to display talent in the use of the "steel" guitar, and the hula was not part of their curriculum.

The try-out was held in the Orpheum theater in San Francisco on Sunday morning, September 6, before theater officials. At the invitation of the Evans boys, Mr. and Mrs. A. P.
 Taylor were also present. The latter were extremely pleased at their musical presentation, says Evans, and were disappointed that the Orpheum people did not share their opinion, as the Taylor family believed the young Hawaiians would have made a hit.

The insistence of the Orpheum people, after offering much encouragement to the Islanders, to add a hula dancer, caused the Evans boys to tell the theatrical people very pointedly that their instrumental act must go or they would return to Hawaii.

"Many of our Honolulu people in San Francisco," said Evans, "told us we had taken the right attitude in refusing to have the hula mixed up with our act, particularly the kind of hula the managers up there think should go on."
 The two other Evans boys will return on the next steamer.

H. G. Lowry, sports writer and representative of J. C. Cohen in the promotion of a Coast league baseball team tour of Hawaii, received by today's mail a letter stating that 16 players are coming with the Venice visitors. The team and accompanying party, 35 reservations in all being made, will sail from San Francisco on November 10. Umpire Jack McCarthy, one of the best-known arbiters on the coast, and Edwin R. Maier, owner of the Venice team, will come at the same time.

BUILDING BILL HAS GOOD CHANCE TO PASS CONGRESS

 at public auction, with an upset price of $150,000.
 Senator Warren of Wyoming, who is handling the matter in the Senate, will help out Honolulu when the bill goes to conference and favors the repayment of the entire $35,000. It is quite possible that he will be able to have his way in the matter.

John Aplo, recently arrested on a charge of having committed a statutory offense, had his case dismissed when it was called for hearing before United States Commissioner George S. Curry this afternoon.

After a hearing extending over many days the contested divorce suit of Malia Espinda, wife of Manuel Espinda, the mounted patrolman, came to an end last Friday and Circuit Judge Whitney gave a written decision today awarding the petitioner a decree on the ground of extreme cruelty. She also gets $30 a month alimony. She alleged non-support but the court did not agree with her on that, and she also asked for gross alimony, which the court denied.
